

THE TRUE TALE OF HATBORO'S MAJOR LEAGUE STAR

Join us for this true tale of Hatboro's major league star and his role in some of the greatest games in baseball history. Steve Yerkes starred for the 1912 Boston Red Sox in one of the most thrilling World Series ever played.

He also played beside, and squared off against Hall of Famers like Tris Speaker, Christy Matthewson and Walter Johnson. And more than held his own.

Step into the on-deck circle on September 18th and find out more about Hatboro's hometown baseball star.
